

Sample Communication Tree

To support community preparedness, GBV teams can work with community leaders to develop communication trees to reach women and girls, or vulnerable individuals, with emergency information. In the example below, 27 individuals or families are reached in just three steps of communication

